OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

YOUNG MEN WITH long hair have become so commonplace now, especially on the college campus, that most of us don't bother to give the youths a second glance.

Unless, of course, one wants to be certain about the sex of the individual.

During the recent rains we made it a point to do minor research on how the long-haired youths (male) handle themselves and their hirsute adornment when caught in a downpour.

We concede that there was no scientific value to our research, other than to satisfy our curiosity.

The observation was done on or near the West Valley College campus.

You see we are well aware how the gals do a cover-up job in the rain.

They have been doing it ever since they were little girls, skillfully using a bandana or scarf to keep their hair dry.

BUT THIS LONG-HAIRED thing for the young male is something comparatively new, one might say.

So we wondered if the guys would go the scarf route in the rain.

Admittedly our research was of short duration (it was too wet for us) and inconclusive.

But it is with some satisfaction to report that we did not see even one youth (male) wearing a scarf over his locks in an attempt to follow the long-established custom used so efficiently and attractively (at times) by women.

Some did try to improvise a head-cover from books, binders and papers.

And there were a few hats that looked quite out of place on top of the long locks.

But no scarves or bandanas knotted daintily at the chin for the males.

At least for now.

But there were a lot of bedraggled - looking individuals running around with their stringy long locks dripping.

A lot of 'em apparently had lost their curl.

LAST WEEK WE REported here that we had returned a self-addressed, stamped card to a life insurance company in Texas that had inquired in a "personal" note to "Press Campbell" when ol' Press was born.

The message indicated that the company would send "Press" free information about "extra cash" health insurance when they got the birth date data as requested.

Obviously the insurance company personnel had taken the listing from the phone book and assumed that good ol' "Press Campbell" was a person.

Being an old meanie and a little tired of this type of "personal message", we dutifully returned the card to Texas specifying June 7, 1895 as the birth date for Press Campbell.

(That happens to be the date The Campbell Press was "born".)

Anyway, there has been a sequel.

Apparently the card was sent from the Dallas home office to an agent in this area to follow through as a possible prospect, ol' Press.

The agent phoned.

He didn't really seem too upset.

In fact, he sorta' chuckled in a half-hearted way.

We guess he had already figured that 75-year-old Press might not be too good a risk for health insurance anyway.

Even for a Texas company

HONORED GUESTS---Father John Lally (second from left) and former Postmaster Jim Hurley, (second from right) were honored for their long activity with the Chamber of Commerce at the CofC luncheon last week. Father Lally, pastor of St. Lucy's for 10 years, was recently assigned to San Mateo.

Hurley retired on Nov. 1 after six years as Campbell postmaster and more than 20 years in the postal service. L. E. (Bill) Means, who recently sold his interest in Campbell Drugs, was also recognized at the luncheon but he was unable to be present.

Acting as master of ceremonies was the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould (left). Neal Royer, on the right, outgoing CofC president, shaking hands with Father Lally, presided at the monthly luncheon, the last for his year as president.

Rincon Park job needs city help

In order to complete the field house facilities at Rincon Park, now bogged down because of insufficient volunteer help, the City Council next Monday, Dec. 22, may be asked to authorize the City to finish the job.

Bill Wren, public works director, and Wally Byron, building official, are expected to make a report on the detrimental effect the present situation could have on the improvements that have already been installed at the ball field.

The Campbell - Moreland Pony League, in charge of the installation, has been allocated $2000 from city funds for the purchase of materials to complete the project but the lack of volunteer labor has forced the job to come to a halt.

City Manager Bob Stephens emphasized that the city staff was not critical of the Pony League officials who have done a tremendous job to date at the field.

"They have just run out of steam," Stephens added, "and need help and the city has an investment in the park that must be protected."

Stephens pointed out that the present incomplete installation makes it a prime target for vandalism and, in addition, the city is liable for problems resulting from the conditions that exist.

Without checking it out, Stephens explained, it is not known at this time how much above the $2000 already allocated will be needed to finish it. The cost could possibly be met from the excess in the present park bond fund, after the park architect's fee has been paid.

In a related Rincon Park matter, the City Council will be asked on Monday to approve the contract with the architectural firm of Arutunian & Johnson of Palo Alto which was selected to draft a master plan for Rincon Park. The architect was selected by a special screening committee who had interviewed applicants for the job.

The contract calls for a maximum of $4500 for a plan for Rincon Park and a maximum of $1200 for consultation services in the development of the neighborhood parks at the schools which was also a part of the park bond issue approved by the voters on June 10.

In other matters on the agenda Monday, the controversial rezoning issue of the versial rezoning issue of Lowell Grattan for property on

Dogs have their day at Planning Commission

Planning Commission members on Monday night went to the dogs (or rather dog experts) in approving a use permit for a kennel at 811 Camden Ave. for a maximum of 25 canines.

Before the 4-2 vote on the application of Mr. and Mrs. George Fritz, considerable time was spent by the commissioners on discussion of the noise created by barking dogs in general and how far such noise could carry. There was divergent opinions on the question.

The proposed kennel is located in an industrial zone adjacent to the Campbell Lumber Co. and Commissioner Thayer Lyons submitted that it was probably the best location for that type of operation.

Chairman Ed Pack wondered if it was necessary to have kennels in town and this subject became a point of discussion among the commissioners.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina brought that discussion to a halt, however, by explaining that kennels were authorized under the city code and the question before the Commission was on the use permit.

The presentation to the Commission for the use permit was first made by Carol Adams, a real estate agent, who emphasized that Mrs. Fritz had 17 years of experience in the field. She added that the kennel very definitely filled a need in the community.

Mrs. Fritz explained that she raised toy Maltese and that the kennel would be used for her dogs as well as for boarders.

She described the plans for the kennel, which includes the removal of the garage now on the property. Sleeping boxes, running water and radiant heat would feature the project plus a fence that would surround the property to insure safety and minimize noise.

The sleeping boxes will be made from cement blocks to insure cleanliness and be warm in winter and cool in summer.

Mrs. Fritz said that the kennel was planned for a minimum of 50 dogs but was subject to county health regulations.

However, the Commission in approving the use permit on the motion of Commissioner Dale Scott and seconded by Commissioner Merle Grim specified that 25 dogs would be the maximum. Commissioner Norm Paul and [illegible]yons voted with them on the use permit with Pack and Commissioner Jack Healey opposed.

In another matter before the Commission, approval was granted Ira Kirkorian, developer of Kirkwood Plaza, to modify the plans for the car care center now under con-

Triple theaters to open Christmas

Campbell's unique triple-theater complex in the Pruneyard at Bascom and Campbell avenues is scheduled to open on Christmas Day, according to Kevin Salmon, leasing agent for the Fred Sahadi-Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel development which includes the 18-story office building, "The Towers."

John O. Wyatt, United Artists Theater Circuit district manager, and William Miller, manager of the new theaters, announced this week that three movies have been booked to open on Christmas Day starting at 1 p.m.

In "U-A Cinema One", which has 816 loge seats, "Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice" will be shown.

In the 480-seat "U-A Cinema Two", "The Arrangement" with Kirk Douglas has been scheduled.

"U-A Cinema Three" has 279 seats and will offer "Butch Cassidy in the Sundance Kid".

The three theaters have entrances off an ornate main lobby which features 600-pound wrought-iron chandeliers and natural stained heavy beamed ceilings.

The entire Pruneyard shopping complex, of which the 26,000 square foot theater building is the first unit, will carry out the early California architectural style, including arched entries and tile roofs.

Work was being pushed this week on the completion of the single projection room that will serve all three theaters on a fully automated basis.

Salmon indicated also that occupancy of "The Towers" is scheduled to begin shortly after the first of the year and work has already started on the second unit of the commercial portion of the Pruneyard.

Recently announced also were plans for the new Bank of America branch that will be located in a free-standing building near the intersection of Bascom and Campbell avenues.

EARLY ISSUE

The Campbell Press will be delivered one day earlier next week (Tuesday instead of Wednesday). The office of The Press will be closed Wednesday and, of course, on Thursday, Dec. 25, Christmas.

Advertisers and correspondents are urged to move up their deadlines to make this early publication possible.

The staff of The Press will be working this Saturday.

Residences may become offices

Residences in P-O (professional office) and commercial zones may be converted into offices upon the securing of a conditional use permit, if a Planning Commission recommendation made on Monday night is approved by the City Council.

Under the present city ordinance which has been in effect for more than eight years, no residence can now be converted into an office or business use.

The recommendation which will be forwarded for City Council action, specifies three types of offices, (a) administrative or executive; (b) professional and (c) miscellaneous. Under the proposal, no merchandising or sales would be permitted in the converted buildings.

Under the amendment, the conversions must comply to all building and fire code requirements and the use permit would apply only to the use requested.

Proponents of the proposed amendment maintain that in some cases in the past the prohibition against conversion has worked a hardship on property owners.

Present at the meeting Monday was Bill Harrison, long-time real estate agent in Campbell, who agreed that the amendment would be helpful but cautioned the Planning Commission to maintain strict "housekeeping conditions" whenever a use permit for the conversion was allowed.

RAINDROPS

Rainfall in Campbell for the season now totals 2.11 inches with 4.13 inches having been received at this same time last year. Normal rainfall is recorded at 4.75 inches.

Jack Payne, local bank manager, retires after 40 year banking career

Joaquin J. (Jack) Payne, who has been a bank manager in Campbell since 1948 and is presently assistant vice-president and manager of Wells Fargo Bank's local branch, will retire on Jan. 1, 1970.

Robert G. Cowan has been named assistant vice-president and manager of the Wells Fargo Bank's office here. Cowan was formerly assistant vice-president and manager of the Broadway-Burlingame office in Burlingame. Cowan joined Wells Fargo in 1956 and has served in several of the bank's major peninsula offices.

Payne, who is now on vacation, is winding up 40 years of banking with Wells Fargo and its predecessor, American Trust. Born in Gilroy, Payne went to work for American Trust in that city in 1929. He was employed in Santa Clara and Tracy before coming to Campbell in 1948.

Payne, with a crew of nine, opened the American Trust branch here in 1948 on E. Campbell Ave. where the Rock Shop is now located.

He continued as manager when American Trust was merged with Wells Fargo. One of the highlights of his banking career in Campbell was the construction of the new building in which the bank is now located at W. Campbell and Second St. More than 35 were employed by the bank at the height of its operation.

Campbell had been without a bank for some time, when American Trust opened in 1948. During Payne's tenure as manager, four other banks have opened branches in town.

A member of the Campbell Rotary Club since 1948, Payne served as president of the club in 1951 and also served as president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce and has a record of more than 10 years as a member of the board of directors of the CofC.

He and his wife, Winifred, have one son, Gerald Thomas Payne, a graduate of Santa Clara University who is now associated with Atlantic-Richfield in Los Angeles in marketing and research.

Cowan, the new Campbell manager, is a native of Illinois and is a graduate of Northern Illinois University in 1951 with a B.S. degree in education.

Cowan, and his wife, Dorothy, reside in San Jose. They are the parents of four children.

NAME CHANGE---On Friday (top picture) it was First Valley Bank, (Winchester at Latimer) and on Monday it was Barclays Bank (lower photo).

That burning ban

There are many residents of this community who are concerned, and rightfully so, over what is going to happen when the so-called backyard burning ban goes into effect.

As most of you know, the Bay Area Air Pollution Control Board has ruled that the backyard incinerator is out come the first of the year.

Admittedly this is a radical departure from what residents in a semi-rural area like ours have had to face in all these years.

Shucks, if you wanted to burn the grass clippings, the leaves or plain old newspapers, like the Campbell Press, you stuck 'em in a converted oil drum and fired away.

Those days will be gone come the new year.

But you know, a cursory research has revealed that fewer people than you think are going to be affected by the backyard burning ban.

What we are saying is in effect: How many times during the past year have you fired up your own backyard incinerator?

History is sort of repeating itself.

Some of us were involved when the backyard burning ban went into effect in southern California.

And that was years ago (1955).

We recall that the same hue and cry was raised.

It was an infringement on human rights.

Who is going to pay for the extra cost that the homeowner is going to be faced with to dispose of his debris that he had stuck in that oil drum or burned in the open?

Now, don't get us wrong.

There are many of you who now use the backyard burning method for disposal. Now you are going to be cut off at the pockets.

But what we are saying is that you will be able to live with it. It is not going to be a federal case, provided you don't let it.

It has been well established that backyard burning DOES intensify the smog situation.

Obviously it does not compare in any degree with the stuff that is put out by automobiles.

But it is a factor in the big picture, nevertheless.

And we have yet to find anyone who likes smog.

So you maybe don't think the little burning you do is going to bother anyone or the atmosphere?

Obviously, again, if you multiply your burning by the thousands, there is a problem.

Let's not be naive about it.

The smog problem is getting worse and anything that can be done just to keep even has to be done.

Unless, of course, you like the eye-smarting smog.

But let's get down to the nitty-gritty.

We have submitted that some of you still burn so you have to change your routine.

And it could cost you dough.

How much?

Green Valley Disposal Company, the firm that has the franchise within the city limits of Campbell for the picking up of trash and garbage, has the services available for extra pickups, if you think it is necessary.

Residential pickup service is provided now on a weekly basis for $1.50 per month for one 30-gallon container.

Additional containers will be picked up on a regular weekly basis for an additional 85¢ per month. ($2.35 per month for two cans per week.)

Irregular or occasional collections can be made, upon request, for a charge of $5.00 per cubic yard, with a minimum of $5.00 per pickup.

Larger rubbish generators can be arranged for a large 18-cubic-yard drop off box to be left for one week periods for a $25 per dump fee. Householders can join together to get one such box and pro-rate the cost.

There are some irate citizens who have maintained that their rights have been jeopardized by this drastic act of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control Board.

But in many cases, they maintain erroneously, that the city is the villian in the piece.

In other words, if it is impossible to use their backyard incinerator, by golly, the city better come through and take care of 'em. Or else they will pile the stuff in the streets.

Let us be reasonable.

The City of Campbell, or any other city, for that matter, within the jurisdiction of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control Board, had nothing to do with this backyard burning ban.

In fact the City of Campbell went on record opposing it.

But before you get all excited, figure out how badly you are being hurt — — or burned.

Your editor has not used his backyard incinerator for the past three years.

Many of you have bigger places, true.

But you can live with it.

That's more than you can say about smog.

evening.

There were some interesting observations made at that session and we jotted down some notes about them.

The notes were brief and, now that considerable time has elapsed and they are cold, deciphering them presents a problem.

We list those we can read without any elaboration or comment:

"If you can move houses for a street, you ought to be able to move houses for a park."

"There is not much land in Campbell left to conserve."

"To save ground space why not go up four-stories instead of one"

"Campbell hasn't very many good-looking apartments. Apartments in Los Gatos are not like Campbell's. They are more attractive."

"Campbell is a business community not like Saratoga or Monte Sereno."

"You can find crummy apartments in Los Gatos, if you look."

"People don't want to live in or next to apartments."

"It is not practical to try to remake a town."

"What is the city doing about air and water pollution?"

"What are the future plans for the city, if it is true that there will be 48,000 people living within the city limits in 1980."

End of notes.

A BANKING CAREER IN Campbell that spans almost 22 years is coming to a close for Joaquin (Jack) Payne, who will retire from Wells Fargo at the end of the year.

Jack Payne is the only branch manager that Wells Fargo (and its predecessor, American Trust) has had in Campbell, which is some sort of a local record in itself. Jack came to town in 1948, a good 10 years before any of the other four banks now in Campbell were established.

And every one of the other branches have had at least one or more changes in managers since they have come to town.

During his tenure in town, Payne has seen many changes take place in the community, in addition to the establishment of the four other banks.

When he opened the American Trust branch (where the Rock Shop now is), the community had been without a bank for some time.

Payne has always taken an active interest in civic affairs,– In those early days in this community, he could be described as being a sort of a carry-over from the days when "the banker" in the community was looked upon as the key person in any civic project.

Local debaters place second in national debate

Tim Dixon and John Brydon, sophomores attending the University of the Pacific and members of the debate team, took second place in the leading national invitational tournament held recently at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs. Placing first in the debate which involved 44 schools from the United States, was a Loyola University team.

Both students attended Campbell High School where they were members of the debate team that represented Campbell High School in the National Forensic League Tournament in St. Paul, Minn..

Dixon and Brydon placed second to a Loyola University team in the tournament which involved 44 schools from the United States. Participation in the tournament was based on the past year's record, with the U. of P. team placing fifth in the nation last year.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Brydon, 1140 W. Latimer Ave. and Tim the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dixon, 916 Bucknam Ave.

Jack served as president of the Chamber of Commerce, of course, and also president of the Rotary Club.

Payne is retiring after almost 40 years in banking.

Born in Gilroy, he started with American Trust in that town in 1929. But more than half of his career in banking has been spent in Campbell.

We wish Jack well in his retirement.

This community is going to miss him.

THREE LONG-TIME members of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce were honored at the CofC luncheon last Thursday with the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould doing the honors in his own inimitable style as master-of-ceremonies.

Receiving awards were Father John Lally, pastor of St. Lucy's for 10 years and recently assigned to a San Mateo parish; Jim Hurley, who recently retired as Campbell postmaster and L. E. (Bill) Means, who recently sold his interest in Campbell Drugs, a store that he founded in 1956 and who has been a druggist in the community for some 22 years.

Bill emphasizes that he is not retired, as has been mistakenly reported in some circles.

He is no longer with Campbell Drugs but is serving as a relief pharmacist three or more days a week in various stores in the valley. That's not being retired, he maintains.

And he proved his point.

He couldn't attend the CofC luncheon at which he was to be honored for his "retired" status.

He was working.

-0-

NEAL ROYER, OUTGOing CofC president, presided at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon at which the three long-time members were honored.

Present at the meeting was St. Lucy's new pastor, Father Leonard Bose, who gave the invocation.

So with the Rev. Ben as MC, Father Lally being honored, Father Bose giving the invocation and the Campbell A Cappella Choir furnishing the music, Neal stuck his tongue in his cheek when he opened the meeting.

"Let's now begin the services," he announced.

W. Campbell Ave. at the San Tomas Expressway will face the City Council.

The Planning Commission after several attempts, recommended on a split vote rezoning the parcels involved to R-2-S as indicated in the general plan. Grattan had asked that the property be zoned commercial indicating that it was suitable for services to the motoring public.

The Council is also expected to act on a new city ordinance that is up for second reading which would make the city's regulations for backyard burning correspond with the new Bay Area Air Pollution Control Board rule effective on Jan. 1, 1970.

After that date, backyard burning will be prohibited.

At the first reading of the ordinance, some of the Councilmen questioned the need for an ordinance change, pointing out that it should be Air Pollution Board's job for policing it.

Japanese teacher spends day visiting Campbell home

Two Cambrian area children are making very unusual marks on their papers these days.

Of course, their father, Robert Hichborn, curriculum coordinator for Metropolitan Adult Education Program, understands why Robby, 11 and Ellen, 9, are making straight lines up and down their papers.

It all started a few weeks ago when a short dark haired man walked into Hichborn's office in San Jose.

"Pardon me," he announced "but I would like to visit your schools". The visitor introduced himself as Shizuo Ino, a teacher from Mikusa Junior High School, Hyogo-Pref., Japan.

Ino came to this country three months before with five countrymen. Given a limited amount of funds, the enterprising teacher of Japanese and English traveled across the United States visiting classrooms, taking pictures, and exploring libraries.

Hichborn invited Ino to spend that evening touring adult education classes at Campbell and Camden High Schools. Before the evening was over, Ino was also invited to spend Sunday with the Hichborn family.

Ino found American family life much to his liking and proceeded to give Robby and Ellen lessons in writing Japanese in their Gunar Drive home.

When he left that day, it was with the promise that he would spend Thanksgiving with them.

During the interim, Ellen and Robby's class pictures (they go to Bohnett and Bagby schools) arrived and they laboriously etched their names in Japanese on them to present to their oriental guest.

Thanksgiving Dinner proved a delight to Ino. "Pie" is unknown in Japan and pumpkin pie was especially good.

Idioms and popular slang were particularly interesting to the eastern educator. He found the traffic expression "bumper-to-bumper" very apt and countered that Tokyo traffic was therefore "shoulder-to-shoulder."

Buying souvenirs to take home to his wife and son and daughter (ages 7 and 5) proved quite a problem. Everything he found that was suitable was marked "Made in Japan."

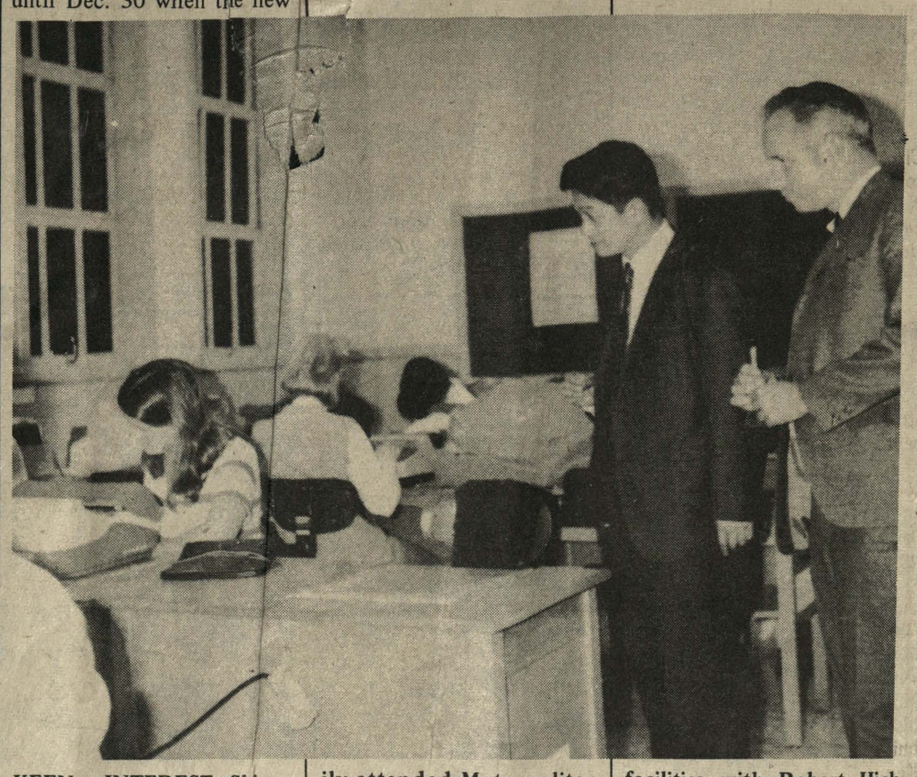
In Japan, Ino owns a Datsun and a Honda. Not that he is a bike enthusiast - but he found it necessary to have the Honda in order to visit his many students' homes, sometimes at the end of remote mountain trails.

Ino has now returned to Japan. It was an exciting experience for the two Hichborn children to accompany him to the airport and see him onto his plane.

His schedule was a little stringent as he was due to report back to work the morning after a late night return.

He'll teach a six-day week until Dec. 30 when the new year brings a two-week holiday when he can enjoy the many pictures he took here.

And Ellen and Robby will continue to write up and down their papers.



KEEN INTEREST--Shizuo Ino, a high school teacher from Japan, found the heavily attended Metropolitan Adult Education classes much to his liking as he toured local facilities with Robert Hichborn, curriculum coordinator for MAEP.

Toy drive for Navajo Indians

The San Jose Delta Zeta alumnae and collegiates are joining together to help provide Christmas for the 500 Navajo Indians in the Santa Clara valley. Under the chairmanship of Miss Claudia Davenport, a San Jose State collegiate from Castro Valley and Mrs. J. R. Murphy, Delta Zeta Alumnae president from Campbell, stockings have been made and used toys and clothes are being collected.

The girls at the Gamma Lambda chapter house are donating their Christmas tree for the Navajos party. The drive for usable toys and clothes for all ages culminated in a party for the alumni children.

SNOWFLAKES

The basic crystal of a snowflake is a hexagon composed of 12 molecules which forms in about an hour and drifts slowly to earth.

What's doing?

If you're calling long distance to loved ones this season, remember that telephone lines can be overloaded during the holiday rush. It's best to make sure you know the area code and the number ahead of time. Then dial the call yourself it's faster. And don't forget: every night, special late night rates from midnight to 7 AM allow you to dial direct station-to-station anywhere outside of California in the continental U.S.A. (except Alaska) for 75¢ or less for the first three minutes. For example, you can call when it's 6:30 AM here and it will be 8:30 AM in Chicago or 9:30 AM in New York.

Here's another Christmas suggestion: If you need help with your Christmas calling and mailing lists, why don't you stop by our business office at 1550 Leigh Avenue. We have a complete file of directories for most cities on the West Coast. Chances are you'll be able to find the phone number or address you've been looking for all month. We'll also be happy to give you a free personal directory so that you can make a permanent list of names and numbers you need at special times like Christmas.

I'm sure this will interest you who love to cook: An Official Cookbook to celebrate California's bicentennial featuring the state's foods and wines is now available for purchase. It has hundreds of recipes and is colorfully illustrated. For further information, or to order one, write: Official California Bicentennial Cookbook, P.O. Box 2366, San Francisco, California 94080.

A very Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year from all of us at Pacific Telephone. It's been a pleasure serving you during the past year and we'll continue to do all we can to bring to Campbell top telephone service in 1970.

THE Toys of Christmas TO YOU...

Camden Chatter

By DEBBIE UNDERWOOD

First of all, I'd like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Christmas vacation begins at 3:05 p.m. this Friday and terminates on Jan. 5, 1970, when students will begin a new year in the halls of Camden.

This Friday night will be the annual Christmas Dance with the theme "Snow Ball". Decorations in store for the evening include aluminum foiled walls and reflecting tin plates strung from the ceiling. Black lights will be situated to enhance the luminous foil.

Mr. Purcell, activities director, has lined up the "Gropus Caktus" for entertainment. Tickets may be purchased at the school bank at $1.50 each for guests or non-student body holders. ASB card holders will be admitted with their card plus 50¢

The Sophomores held their first candy sale this year in order to increase their class treasury. Approximately 1200 bars of Chiradelli chocolate were sold, making a net profit of $300. Good work, Class of '72!

Seniors led in the tally of 11 straight "A" students for the first quarter. The top seniors include: Stewart Ballard, Lorraine Bender, Steve Brizzi, Janet Childs, Roberta Gray, Debbie Haack, Richard Jackson, Stephen Moerlein, Sharon Padres, Sally Schomberg and Gary Siggins.

The junior and sophomore classes tied for second with eight superior students apiece. Junior scholars are: Michael Clacase, Michele Frazier, Marna French, Deborah Hill, Susan Hirano, Dale Hudson, Donna Meiss and Lori Udseth.

Geniuses of the sophomore class are: Sheri Bebb, Kathleen Dinshaw, Jean Garland, Gail Ikeda, Janis Kaneko, John Lazarakis, James Richardson and Cathleen Wiens.

Freshmen have started the year with five top students who are: Linda Kemp, Krista Kmetz, Roberta Lucero, Carol Marrington and Randy Murakami.

Prospect Pulse

by IVALEE INGRAHAM

Prospect's Varsity hoopsters took part in the Live Oak Basketball Tournament this past week. Panthers met Santa Clara on Thursday, but lost 55-53. On Friday they battled Lick, only to lose by one point, 62-61.

Panther Soccer Team also played on Thursday, losing 2-0 to Buchser. This is the first year that soccer will be played as a league sport. It was started last year, by Westmont High, and became so popular that it is now an official spring sport, along with basketball and wrestling.

Key Club's annual canned foods drive is continuing this week. The drive is organized as class competition. Prizes will be given to daily winners. The winners will be the people who bring in the most cans on each day. They will receive record albums. A grand prize of two tickets to a Century Theater will be awarded to the person who brings in the highest total of cans.

This week there will also be class competition in decorating class Christmas trees. The four trees are set up in the cafeteria, and the tree that is decorated the best will win spirit points for its class.

Tonight Girls' Sports is having a Potluck dinner for all its alumni members. There will be lots of food, skits and games. All alumni members are invited to attend.

Westmont Whirl

By Linda Hall

This Friday the Westmont student body will present "A Toyland Christmas" as the theme of the annual Christmas dance. The evening will provide the opportunity for the guests to reach back into their childhood ventures through toyland.

As the couples, dressed in their formals and suits, enter the ballroom, they will be overcome by the carefree atmosphere. Saint Nick has given each guest the precious gift of a moment into their past.

Santa's helpers placed gingerbreadmen, angels, drums, soldiers, candy canes and, of course, all the different toys possible around the room. Students will remember those tempting moments while discovering this year's hiding places as they come across presents wrapped up with beautiful paper and ribbons.

A scroll will be available to the guests which they may use to announce their New Year's resolutions. It is hoped that some of the guests will be so taken by the venture that they will try to fool Santa by resolving that they will take very good care of all the toys they and their friends receive on Christmas morning from him.

Campbell Corners

By Cindy Harris

Campbell High Rep

"Joy of Cooking" and "Lotion" are the bands to play at the biggest dance ever at Campbell on Dec. 19. Tickets for this outstanding evening should be purchased in advance as only a limited number of persons will be admitted because of the capacity of the cafeteria.

Every student body card holder in the Campbell Union High School District is invited to this dance and the cost is $1.25 with a student body card and $1.75 without. All those without student body cards are reminded to sign up at the Treasure Chest during both lunches. Tickets can be purchased from any Council member.

"Joy of Cooking" is one of the most outstanding bands in the area and have toured all over with other big name groups, such as Crosby, Stills, and Nash. Get your ticket now and get in on the big night, Dec. 19. You'll be sorry if you miss out on this one.

In last week's student council meeting it was announced that an open campus would not come again this year. Mr. Peck handed down his "no" after thinking over the situation with the school and the merchants in the area. Shoplifting was one cause why an open campus was closed before and they feel the problem would rise again if an open campus was allowed.

Mr. Peck also felt that too many classes would be out or missed and there would be too many tardies if students were allowed to leave the campus at lunch. This question of open campus has come up every year since the campus was closed and has been turned down as often.

Tom Carey proposed his idea of a smoking area on campus to the Council. There are people who back his proposals and there are many who don't. What the members would like is for everyone of either opinion to come to the next Council meeting and voice their views on the matter.

There is a concern over the matter that the students show such little interest in their council. The number of people attending the meetings has dropped considerably since the beginning of the year. The Council needs the support of the students to get anything done so they would like to see many more faces at the next meeting.

On Dec. 16 there was an assembly to introduce the people who will be running for next semester's councilmen. You will vote for the ones of your choice on Dec. 18.

Remember to purchase your tickets for Friday's dance tomorrow. The dress for the dance will be school attire.

VOLCANOS

After the eruption of Mt. Katmai, Alaska, in 1912, several million fumeroles, volcanic vents of gases and steam, appeared in an area of 50 square miles.

PTA NEWS

CUB SCOUTS

PACK 377

Cub Pack 377, sponsored by the Hazelwood Home and School Club, capped off the month of November with each of its eight dens presenting a puppet show for their parents at their monthly pack meeting. In keeping with the season, the skits had the pilgrims and Indians at the first Thanksgiving feast as a theme.

Den 6, however, having the honor of presenting the evening's finale, presented by hand puppets, the drama of Betsy Ross producing the first "Stars and Stripes". As a climax, the boys held up the finished flag for the audience as all joined in singing the National Anthem.

The November pack meeting also was the scene of the first formal "full-dress" inspection of the boys for the year. A perpetual star trophy, to be displayed on the den's colors, is won by the den judged by pack committeemen to be the best for cleanliness, neatness and correctness of uniform criteria. November winner was Den 7, which includes Tony Daquisto, David Erkman, Thomas Farley, Kelly Kroening, Kelly Stout, Peter Thibault, Dan Trinidad and David Tuller.

An additional highlight in Pack 377's November schedule was a private roller-skating party for the boys and their families. The Skateland roller rink on Almaden Road was turned over to the pack for its exclusive use for two hours on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8. The turnout was exceptionally good with over 100 people participating.

West Valley College Sports

The West Valley College title grid squad dominated the spotlight at the school's recent fall sports awards banquet. Head Coach Bob Jones awarded 61 letters and 10 trophies for outstanding achievement in WVC's best football year ever.

Dave Ray, the Camino Norte Conference's most valuable player, was tabbed Valley's best back. The diminutive running back charged for 1398 yards in 243 totes on the year and led the state's large JC's in rushing with a regular season 1286 yards.

All-CNE defensive end Ron Semon was named as the most inspriational player while fellow all-leaguer Herb Robinson was presented the Tom Huelsman Award, best lineman. Larry Ray was the squad's most improved player. The second Ray was among the top five in California scoring.

Bill Barnes and Scott Loomis, each all-conference, garnered special awards for their performances in the De-Anza game. Achievement awards went to Semon and L. Ray with D. Ray and Semon taking co-captain honors. Other WVC all-leaguers were Dave Boreham, Lance Anderson, Steve Malone and Andy Jackson.

Those playing their last game in Viking blue and orange were Barnes, a grad of, Wilcox; Boreham, Del Mar; Jackson, Campbell, Malone, Campbell; D. Ray, Buchser; L. Ray, Buchser; Robinson, Blackford; Larry Bennett, Buchser; Bob Boese, Saratoga; Dennis Craig, Campbell; Rich DeFelice, Santa Clara; Stan Hedegard, Campbell; Gary Jacobson, Buchser; Mike Lombardo, Blackford; Larry Lorell, Camden; Harry Macartney, Santa Clara; Pete Maiers, Leigh; Richard Pantoia, Santa Clara; Kent Pederson, Leigh; Dave Pollack, Leigh; Mike Sharpe, Blackford; Tim Sorenson, Los Gatos; Doug Taylor, Del Mar; and Greg Warrick, Armijo.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The Valley cross-country team suffered a losing 2-3 season but can look forward to a good year in 1970 as Dave Kopp was the only sophomore runner. Dan Cruz, sixth at the conference finals, was picked the squad's mvp and Les DeVoe WV's captain. Watch the Vike harriers in '70, they're coming back.

SOCCERMEN

A losing year was turned in by West Valley's soccermen as they posted a 3-8-1 Western Junior College Soccer Conference standing. The highlight of the kickers season was an upset win over title-bound Skyline College in the last week of the season. MVP for the Vikes was Pete Pelsma while Leo Campos took most inspirational applauds. Mike Mullenberg and Chuck Reynolds were co-captains. The Valley booter's top scorers were Talip Bikul, six goals, Mullenberg, four, and Pelsma, three.

WATER POLO

Harry McGee and Mike Hendrickson were lauded as the most valuable offensive and defensive water-poloists, respectively. McGee was the Vike swimmers leading scorer while Hendrickson concentrated his efforts on defense. McGee and Mike Castellano were the season's co-captains. Splashing in their last polo game for WVC was Castellano, Santa Clara High product; McGee, Blackford; Ken Beckman, Camden; Greg Diel, Saratoga; Rob Genest, Willow Glen; Don Heisey, Wilcox; and Chris Street, Buchser.

IT'S ALMOST ALL OVER--- Dick Adams, officer-in-charge at the Campbell post office, checks an outgoing "shipment" from the Campbell office. The heavy Christmas mailing rush that has been in effect for the last several weeks has now reached its crest, Adams reports.

CAMPBELL CHAIRMEN--- Local women who volunteer for participation in the annual Mothers' March do so because they are dedicated to the fight against birth defects--but sometimes there is fun along with the job involved. Here, Mrs. L. L. Fisher, who has accepted a divisional chairmanship for a Campbell area (left), and Mrs. Austin Parish of San Jose (right), are pictured at a Mothers' March luncheon where they met Jane Wyatt, movie and television star who is in her seventh year as national Mothers' March chairman. Local women who would like to volunteer to help Mrs. Fisher should call her at 378-1077.

Enroll now for spring WVC classes

Applications are now being accepted at West Valley College for admission to the spring semester. Deadline for applications is Jan. 12.

Due to the anticipated heavy increase in enrollment over previous spring semesters, students who fail to meet the Jan. 12 deadline will, of necessity, be restricted to extended day (evening) classes.

Application for admission may be made in the Admissions and Records Office, located on the Campbell campus, Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Monday through Thursday evenings from 6 to 10 p.m.

A priority to register will be issued to all students upon completion of the necessary applications for admission (including identification photo); high school and college transcripts; test scores; and a fact sheet, provided this is done by Jan. 12.

Registration will be held Feb. 2 through Feb. 4 for day students who have met the entrance requirements. Instruction begins on Feb. 9.

SPORTS FANS!

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Al Salciccia

What are the odds that two football teams meeting two straight years would see those two games end with the same team winning by the same score and with the same man scoring the same number of winning points in both games?... Did you know this coincidence once happened to Army and Navy...Navy beat Army in 1910 and again in 1911... The score of each game was Navy 3, Army 0... And in each of those games, the scoring was done by the same man in the same way as Jack Dalton of Navy won each game by kicking a field goal for the only points in the game... Who would ever predict that two straight games could be so similar.

Years ago one-stop "shopping" at the service station was practically unknown. In 1929 our management realized that if service stations adopted this simple principle of modern merchandizing - supplying the customer with his basic automotive needs - it could greatly increase over-all volumes of business. This was the beginning of the Tire, Battery, and Accessory business and the start of the association of the Atlas brand name with Humble Service Stations. The phrase "TBA" was coined by us to present tires, batteries and accessories".

Atlas products carry well-known guarantees respected from coast to coast and Canada.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

On frequent occasions I have felt that the term "military-industrial complex" was irresponsibly used as a wide smear of the military establishment and defense industry. In most cases, there is another side to a story of alleged waste than what appears in headlines.

One recent incident received almost no publicity when Representative Samuel Stratton (D-NY) and I teamed up in an unsuccessful attempt to prevent what Stratton called a "billion dollar boo boo" by the Army

Seven years ago the Army considered the question of whether they should develop two separate anti-tank missiles, one to be fired by infantry troops and another by an armored vehicle. Their own study concluded that going down these two separate roads instead of adapting one missile for both purposes would be the most expensive.

Then the Army proceeded to ignore its own study and started work on the vehicle mounted Shillelagh and also the TOW (Tube, Optically sighted, Wire guided) anti-tank missiles. So, today we have two similar missiles with the same range, with the same degree of accuracy, and which weigh within ten pounds of each other.

The basic difference is that the Shillelagh can be fired from the Sheridan vehicle, a helicopter and from the ground after a little more development. But the TOW cannot be fired from the Sheridan. The infantrymen's ground launch tube will cost $96,000 and is so heavy that it must be carried by a jeep. The TOW will cost about $6,000 per missile and Shillelagh is currently costing about $2,000.

Representative Stratton and I headed a committee which made a deep study of the relative merits of these two missiles. We concluded that the Shillelagh would be more flexible and would have greater use. We recommended that only one missile be purchased and the Armed Services Committee and the House sustained our recommendation.

Then high Army officials contacted the Senate and convinced them that the two weapons were different and that there was an urgent need to save the 18 months time which would be required to fully develop Shillelagh as a ground launch weapon.

The Army's argument was not valid since German troops in our NATO force have the wire guided French anti-tank missile (the SS-11) which is fully capable of giving us an anti-tank defense until Shillelagh can be adapted to the ground mode.

Representative Stratton and I made still another effort. We supported an amendment to delete $100 million from this year's defense bill for procurement of the TOW missile. We lost and unless the Senate reverses its past position, the American taxpayers will be saddled with duplicating weapons systems, the cost of training and maintenance for two systems, and the thousands of separate parts which must be kept in inventory. This could well turn into an eventual expenditure of $1 billion.

Here is a classic example of how a military-industrial combine has, in fact, operated against the public interest. But because it came at the time of the more newsworthy alleged massacre at My Lai, it was only mentioned on the back pages in very small type.

Sometimes I wonder.

Winter weddings unite couples in recent rites

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES KALETTA

MRS. CHARLES KALETTA

A double ring candlelight ceremony was held Dec. 6 in the Valley Church, uniting in marriage Kerry Louise Feak and Charles Lamont Kaletta. Officiating was the Rev. Harold W. Edmonds.

As she went to meet her bridegroom, Kerry wore a lovely ivory satin A-Line gown with full ivory chantilly lace sleeves. A lace-over-satin front A-line panel with clusters of tiny seeded pearls ended in a brush train and a full length shaded ivory chantilly lace mantilla also had a brush train. Completing the picture was a cascade bouquet of creamy white roses with a deep red rose center and cascades of the same red roses.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Donald Feak, Jr., Miss Feak is a Westmont High School graduate.

In the wedding party the red of the bride's bouquet was carried out in the floor length deep red velvet gowns of the five attendants.

All of the gowns were edged with light pink satin trim and they carried cascades of light pink baby carnations. Serving as maid of honor was Miss Melody Ward with the Misses Deborah Kaletta, Sharon Allen and Jill Golden in the bridesmaids roles and Miss Julie Feak as junior bridesmaid.

Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kaletta, formerly of Campbell and a Westmont High School graduate.

For the occasion the mothers of the bride and groom chose green and aqua gowns with Mrs. Feak in a moss green lace over taffeta with matching accessories and Mrs. Kaletta chosing a light aqua lace over French crepe and deep blue accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

The duties of best man were carried out by Ronald Podraza with William Longo, Dayton Evans, Adair Welch, Mark Monroe and Clifford Donald Feak, ushering.

A reception at the bride's parents home followed the ceremony with a buffet supper and champagne being served to 200 guests. The bridal cake of four tiers was set off by the decorations of large white mums, glads and red roses.

For her wedding trip to the Tahoe area, the new Mrs. Kaletta chose a black and white herringbone tweed suit and a red rose corsage.

The newly-weds are now making their home in the San Jose area.

MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE GARCIA

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Garcia are now making their home in Sunnyvale following a wedding trip to Yosemite.

The First United Methodist Church of Campbell was the scene of the late November wedding which was officiated over by the Rev. Alan R. Goozee.

For her wedding day Carol Lyn Olson chose an empire styled white satin gown trimmed with lace. A cathedral length veil of silk illusion was held with a petal headpiece and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Attending the bride in identically styled green peau de soie gowns were the Misses Donna Morris, Linda Santos and Barbara Spears. All carried out the bridal picture with bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

The new Mrs. Garcia is the daughter of Mrs. Virginia Olson of Franlea Drive and of Marvin Olson. She attended Campbell High School and is presently enrolled in the Sunnyvale Beauty College.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Olson chose an avocado green gown complimented with an off-white corsage.

Lawrence is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Garcia of N. Milton Ave. A Campbell High School graduate, he is now employed by Winchester Plumbing.

Standing with his brother as best man was Beryl Garcia. Ushers included Jim Giguere and James Cox.

Mrs. Garcia chose a turquoise gown for the occasion with a white corsage.

Following the wedding the newly-weds greeted their friends in the Fireside room at the church.

NEIGHBORHOOD 17 NEW LEADERS

Mrs. F. H. Clough, acting chairman of the regular November meeting of Neighborhood 17, appointed the following women as Girl Scout Leaders for the coming year Msdms. W.E. Kahn, R.M. Cirigliano, V. T. Raasch, C. P. Longley, Ken Labrovich, Jean Woodruff, K. D. Casteel, E. L. Hendricks.

Peg Hayes, G. A. Ryan, Frank Millich, Tom Flanagan, Jackie Green, Raymond Gonzales, Owen Dimock, Jan Fudally, C. D. DePalmo and R. H. Wehner.

Each were presented with a Girl Scout membership pin by Mrs. C. T. Mahler, Troop Organizer for Neighborhood 17. They, and their Sister Troop Leaders repeated the Girl Scout Promise and the 10 laws which act as guidelines for the Girl Scout program.

The Service Team taught "Get Acquainted Bingo" and several songs; "Hey Ho - Nobody Home", "Kookaburra", "Linstead Market", and "Kum Ba Yah" as program aids for the new leaders. A craft table with samples for further program aids was on display.

The next meeting is set for Jan. 13, 1970, at the Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 W. Campbell Ave., at 9:30 a.m.

CAMP-OUT

"There's nothing like camping to get acquainted!" reported Mrs. Richard Crapo, leader of Junior Girl Scout Troop 166, as she spoke on the experiences of 23 girls and four mothers. Mrs. Leonard Fiock, former leader, Mrs. Peter Bisceglia and Mrs. Reed Higgins accompanied the Dover School troop to Mountain View Scout House for their "back-to-scouting" overnight recently.

Patrol Leaders Gaye Cohen, Lorna Higgins, Pam Hover and Kathy Schmidt assisted Kathy Crapo, treasurer, and Sue Hale, scribe, as they guided the program plans for the year ahead.

Jeri Balsley, Jeanne Bisceglia, Shelly Coleman, Nancy Crapo, Disa Dimock, Debbie Dippolito, Cindy Drake, Ann Fiock, Patty Jordon, Pat La Grange, Susan Newell, Lori Praisewater, Debbie and Kathy Scarborough, Amy Sprecher, Rebecca Weldon and Beth Wilburn worked individually on badge requirements for "Sign of the Arrow" and "Backyard Fun".

An evening campfire warmed the cold night air as everyone sang favorite songs. Each girl then bedded down inside the building on the floor with her sleeping bag and listened to records.

Mrs. Crapo related that in order to further carry out the Santa Clara Girl Scout Council goal of "Broadening the Reach" for girl scouting, Troop 166 must first know itself better, then maintain good relationship with the new fourth graders coming into the troop. More camping is planned for later in the year.

The second leader of the troop, Mrs. Owen Dimock, was unable to attend.

RETURNING FOR 12TH YEAR---Last year the El Solyo singers paused long enough to have their picture taken. Many of the same carolers will be returning again this year.

El Solyo Singers return to carol Dec. 23

Under the direction of Mrs. Louis Cabral, El Solyo Singers will carol their parents on the block of 1166 El Solyo Ave. on Dec. 23.

The tradition has been carried on for 12 years. Originally under the direction of Mrs. Charles Cole, the group began when the children were from 3 to 4 years old. The original group has now grown up.

Two have married. Two are in college preparing for medical school. Many have moved out of the area, yet they wish to come back for caroling.

Those who will carol this season will be Jeannie Wanco, Leslie, Dan and Glenn Nakamura, Cindy Cabral, Sarah Cole, Jamie Francais, Elizabeth and Margaret Tripp, Michey, Judy and Gerard Hernandez, Merry and Heidi Wieland, Kenneth Schilling, Paula Hurley, Dawna and Darlene Marshall, Micky and Cindy Farraons, Jeff and Steven Hodes, Michelle, Nessa, Michel, and Chollette Kirk.

Santa Claus to visit at Legion Hall Dec. 19

Children of American Legion and Auxiliary members, West Valley Post 158, will enjoy their annual Christmas party at the Legion Hall on Dell Ave. on Friday, Dec. 19. An early time, 6:30 p.m. is set so the little ones can still enjoy the festivities before they get too tired.

At 7 p.m. sharp the children and adults alike will be entertained with dancers from a dance studio who will present acrobatic dances, as well as the traditional ballet and tap.

Santa Claus is scheduled to arrive at 7:30 p.m. and will distribute gifts to all the children to be followed by refreshments for the children and adults.

The party is open to children and grandchildren.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS---14-month-old Ginger Dahlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Dahlin, isn't too crazy about her first encounter with Santa Claus, but her brothers, Karl, 6, Peter, 5, and Eric, 8, don't mind at all, particularly the gifts. This all happened at the annual Christmas Party for children of employees of Campbell Community Hospital, co-sponsored by the hospital auxiliary. Mrs. Dahlin, a Campbell resident, is a registered nurse at the hospital, but don't look now--the Santa Claus is none other than E. E. Admire, former hospital administrator.

Dear Santa Claus

I have been a good boy and this is my Christmas list. 1. football uniform, 2. five hot wheel cars, 3. minibike.

The carefully printed letter leaves no doubt that the writer still believes in Santa Claus, as does the envelope addressed to Santa Claus, P. O. Box 0001, North Pole.

Lots of letters are still flowing through the Campbell post office addressed to Santa Clause, or Sant Clus, or Santa Clus, depending on how the children address them. One little girl reminded Santa Cluause that she had been a very good little girl and that she was sure Santa had heard of her because "I write you often". She wanted a toy typewriter, a little dutch oven, a little ball to bounce, a nurce kit (sic) a portable radio and new coat because hers is almost warn (sic) out.

Other letters that paused briefly in the Campbell Press office before going on their way to the North Pole, reflected the role television plays in the youngsters lives, with one child quite professionally listing 27 items, mostly by brand names.

Another little girl wistfully reminded Santa she washed dishes every day and was good.

So, don't you believe it, Virginia, Santa Claus still lives in the hearts of our little people. He might arrive by helicopter these days instead of sliding down the chimney, but all over Campbell stockings will be hung, the tree lights turned on and a plate of goodies set out on Christmas Eve for the jolly old Saint's visit.

Grange plans childrens party

A children's Christmas party for children of members of the Orchard City Grange No. 333 will be held Dec. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at the Grange Hall.

The Campbell High School choir will entertain and a four piece western band will provide music for the evening.

A gift for each child with their name on it should be brought by adults for Santa to distribute.

This will be an open meeting for families and friends of the Grange.

A candle lighting service will be held on the first meeting in January with the officers to wear formals.

During the Dec. 9 meeting a class of eight candidates was initiated in the fourth degree by Zelia Martin, past master. New candidates from Campbell include Anna Rhine, Freda Mattes, John Mattes and Robert Wentker.

Girls to hold Christmas tree pick-up Jan. 10

Christmas trees are just now being decorated in homes throughout Campbell, but already a group of enterprising Girl Scouts are looking forward to the time after Christmas when the trees will be taken down.

On Jan. 10 the ninth grade Cadettes from Campbell and Westmont High will conduct a "Christmas Tree pick-up" for a small fee. Realizing that with the new stricter smog controls, Christmas trees can no longer be burnt outside, the girls will be doing a good deed as well as earning money which will be used for expenses for those going to the Girl Scout National Center West this summer.

During the next week the girls will be canvassing the households making appointments for the Jan. 10 pick-up. The girls may be paid at this time or when the trees are taken away. Anyone desiring this service may call 378-0548, 379-1858, 378-0351 or 378-7306.

Planned for the summer months by the girls is "The Wyoming Trek" when seniors from all over the United States will be going to Wyoming to spend one or two weeks camping at the new national site. The local girls will be traveling by bus, camping out along the way.

O.E.S.

Campbell Chapter, No. 553, Order of Eastern Star, will hold their Star Circle Christmas party at the home of Mrs. May Wilson, Worthy Matron, 10818 E. Estates Dr., Cupertino.

The party will be held Dec. 19 at 8 p.m. with appointive officers as hostess for the evening. A $1 gift exchange will be held.

Over 300 years old...

BARCLAYS BANK

comes to Santa Clara Valley!

To give this area new, wider and greater services than ever, First Valley Bank has now joined its eight Santa Clara Valley branches with the world-renowned "Barclays Group."

Here are some interesting facts about Barclays and its background. If you wish more information—or have some particular questions to ask—please come into your local bank which now proudly bears the fine old name—BARCLAYS.

WHO IS BARCLAYS? "Barclays" is made up of The Barclays Group of banks throughout England, Wales, Scotland and France. And throughout Africa, the Mediterranean and the Caribbean. And there are Barclays Banks in the United States in New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Anaheim and Fullerton. Now, by joining with First Valley Bank, Barclays is growing throughout California's Santa Clara County.

HOW OLD IS BARCLAYS? Barclays traces its founding to the 17th Century – before there were subdivisions or even prune orchards in Santa Clara Valley!

(You may be interested to know that the Barclays insigne—the spread eagle—displayed above comes from a sign which hung over the premises in London where Barclays first began its banking business.)

HOW LARGE IS BARCLAYS? Large enough, we believe, to meet almost any local banking needs.

Currently, our Barclays Group resources are something over twelve billion dollars ($12,000,000,000)!

We should be well able to handle your financial needs—personal, business, industrial and agricultural. And in order to bring our facilities to the whole Santa Clara Valley, we are planning a number of additional branches.

BUT WHAT ABOUT SERVICES? The same courtesies and conveniences you have known and enjoyed at First Valley Bank, such as 8 to 5 hours Monday through Thursday and 8 to 6 on Friday will, of course, be continued.

Now, Barclays will offer Gold Passbook savings accounts which earn 5.13% annual return on 5% interest... free personal checking accounts if you maintain a minimum balance of only $100... free travelers cheques (without commission charges) for depositors... and other advantages. You are invited to come and discover them all.

Obituaries

JOSUE CASTILLO

Funeral services were held last week for Josue V. Castillo, 1570 Walters Ave. who was fatally burned Dec. 9 when a fuel fire ignited as he was pumping gasoline into an underground tank at Pfeiffer Electrical Co., 82 S. Third St. He was 41 at the time of his death.

Castillo was burned over nearly 80 per cent of his body when the spilled gasoline vapors apparently caught fire from the engine of a near-by truck.

A native of Oxnard, Castillo had lived in Campbell for the last 10 years. He is survived by his widow, Sally, and four daughters, Mrs. Wendy Sue Flores, Kathy Castillo and Alice Castillo, all of Campbell and Mrs. Elsie Perez, of Oxnard, and a son, Manuel Torres, Jr., of Oxnard.

He is also survived by his father, Antonio Castillo of Germany; his mother, Mrs. Alice San Augusta of Port Hueneme; two brothers and three sisters.

Requiem Mass was celebrated from St. Thomas of Canterbury Church with burial in the Los Gatos Memorial Park. The Rosary was recited from the Campbell Memorial Chapel.

CLAUDE BARHAM

A heart ailment claimed the life of Claude Stanley Barham Dec. 8 who made his home at 2873 S. Bascom Ave. A county resident for 22 years, he was 69 at the time of his death. He was a former sales executive with an auto parts firm before his retirement.

Barham was a member of George E. Tutt Masonic Lodge 772 of Campbell and of Scottish Rite bodies in San Jose.

He was survived by his wife, Emma U. Barham and a son and daughter, Richard C. Barham of Modesto and Mrs. Gloria Zeh of Novato. He was also the brother of Chester A. Barham of Modesto, Mrs. Mazie Donaldson of Pleasant Hill and Mrs. Evelyn Crepeau of Long Beach. He also leaves five grandchildren.

Final services were under the auspices of the Campbell Memorial Chapel with graveside rites held at the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Modesto.

Fire chief lists Yule safety rules

George Maxwell, Campbell fire chief, warned Campbell residents of the fire dangers present in the lovely Christmas decorations now going up in Campbell homes.

In an effort to help reduce the number of tragedies resulting from fires in the home during the Yule season, Maxwell offered the following list of safety suggestions.

Choose a small tree instead of a large one. A small tree can be just as pretty, less hazardous.

Keep the tree outdoors until you're ready to install it.

Don't set up the tree until just before Christmas.

Set up the tree in a cool part of the house, away from radiators, heaters, fireplaces. Stand it in water to retard drying.

Use fireproof decorations of glass or metal, never cotton or paper decorations unless flameproof.

Don't set up electric trains around or near the tree.

Use electric lights - never candles. Inspect every electric socket and wire to make sure set is in good condition. Discard lighting sets with frayed wiring. When buying, look for UL label of Underwriters Laboratories, Inc.

Provide a switch at some distance from the tree for turning lights on and off.

Don't leave lights burning when away from home.

From time to time, inspect the tree to see whether any of the needles near the lights have started to turn brown. If so, change the position of the lights.

When needles start falling, take the tree down and discard it outdoors.

Gift wrappings, of course, should be discarded promptly and safely after presents are open.

ELECTED

John J. Garvey of Campbell has been elected to the student senate of the University of Santa Clara for the 1969-70 year.

A junior major in political science, Garvey, 19, is a graduate of Camden High School.

He is the son of Mrs. Alva Eby, 2242 Shamrock Dr., No. 3, Campbell.
